

THE EUROBIZ COUNTDOWN

eurobiz.uconn.edu

1st Year: accepted into the School of Business? YAY!

10

Enroll in the DUAL DEGREE program with German Studies (CLAS), and take GERMAN 1001 or higher - your advisors in BUSN and in German Studies will help

End of 1st or 2nd Year

Take ONE German course per semester and come join us for a biannual 10-Day trip to Germany!

9

8

End of 1st Year or 2nd Year

Intern at one of over 150 German companies in Connecticut - we can make the connections

Keep meeting people and building your network

Meet with your advisors in both schools on a regular basis to plan YOUR path with our help

7

6

Entering 3rd Year

Keep interning and start planning for your year abroad while taking GERM3233 and GERM3234

Half Time: Time to breathe and be proud

Meet your peers who may be going abroad with you, come to the Kaffeestunden, enjoy your success in German Studies and your BUSN major!

5

Spring 3rd Year: Apply to EGL by February

Time to plan your year abroad! Explore which university and city is best for your professional path and discuss with your advisors in both schools

Fall 4th Year: Semester at a German University in Baden-Württemberg

Leave for Germany at the end of August, take an intensive German course and begin your semester in mid-October - supported by a stipend until February

4

3

Spring 4th Year: International Internship

Begin applying for paid internships in Germany at the end of November and start working February or March until July or August - and don't forget to travel Europe!

5th Year SUCCESS: Graduation Time with 2 Degrees!

Upon your return from Germany, focus on your job applications and take the Capstone Course GERM4246 in the Spring

2

1

UConn
UNIVERSITY OF CONNECTICUT

No prior German required!